

Writing Opinions 1

This icon indicates that the slide contains activities created in Flash. These activities are not editable.

This icon indicates that a slide contains audio.

This icon indicates coverage of the Language Standards.

This icon indicates that a worksheet accompanies the slide.

This icon indicates teacher's notes in the Notes field.

This icon indicates an opportunity for collaboration or group work.

College and Career Readiness Standards for Writing:

1. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

What is your favorite book?

Think about your favorite book

Alex used his notes to write a review of his favorite book.

A book review tells you what someone thinks about a book.

Book reviews can help you to decide whether you would enjoy reading a book.

I read Alex's review to see if Stellaluna was the book for me!

Sentence sorting

Try writing a book review about your favorite book!

Remember to:

- introduce your topic
- give your opinion
- give reasons for your opinion
- give your review a clear ending.

Share your review with a partner. Ask your partner if they understand why you liked your book. If they cannot, try changing your review to make this clearer.

