Sort the animals into two groups of your own!

As you sort through them, write down the name of each animal in the corresponding box:

A large, rounded rectangular box with a light yellow background and a green border. A horizontal dashed line is drawn near the top of the box, indicating a space for writing.A large, rounded rectangular box with a light yellow background and a green border. Some plants are big,
some plants are small,
but leaves, stems, roots and flowers are part of them all!

Some plants are woody,
and some plants are not,
how many different plants can you spot?
