

Writing to Inform

This icon indicates that the slide contains activities created in Flash. These activities are not editable.

This icon indicates that a slide contains audio.

This icon indicates coverage of the Language Standards.

This icon indicates that a worksheet accompanies the slide.

This icon indicates teacher's notes in the Notes field.

This icon indicates an opportunity for collaboration or group work.

College and Career Readiness Standards for Writing:

2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

Key features of informative writing

Informative writing

Analyzing informative writing

Choose one of the following tasks. You should consider the style, language, audience and purpose of your writing while you are planning.

1. Write the text for the homepage of a website featuring your favorite sport or hobby.
2. Choose a historical figure that you find inspiring and write an informative essay explaining the significance of a particular action or event in his or her life.
3. You have been picked to write a short piece to go into a time capsule in your town. It should tell the reader what life is like for high school students right now.

Planning your informative writing

Planning your writing

Example text for a website

Rules for informative writing

