

Worksheet One

This worksheet accompanies The Conditional Tense.

Probability

Look at the photo and then finish these sentences by describing what will probably happen.

Photo © Benis Arapovic, Shutterstock.com

1. If the ball goes in the hoop _____

2. If a teacher catches them playing basketball _____

3. If the bell were to ring _____

Worksheet Two

This worksheet accompanies The Conditional Tense.

Is it a conditional sentence?

Read each sentence and decide whether or not it is written in the conditional tense. Circle the correct answer.

1. I flew to Santa Fe last weekend.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
2. If I had the money, I would fly to Santa Fe.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
3. I want to become a doctor when I am older.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
4. If I had not fallen asleep during the test, I would have passed.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
5. If I go to the beach today, I should wear sunscreen.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
6. When I was young, I loved playing hopscotch.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
7. If I hadn't brought a sweater with me, I would be feeling cold.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
8. Last summer, I went on vacation to Turkey.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
9. If I go on a trip this year, I will go back to Turkey.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence
10. If I had gone swimming, I might have gotten cramp.
conditional sentence not a conditional sentence

