Speaking clearly

After you have read and listened to the poem, you can draw your own picture about the poem in the box below.

Bed in Summer

by Robert Louis Stevenson

In winter I get up at night
And dress by yellow candle-light.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

Tell the story

Nicole is telling her class a story about her trip to the zoo. Which of these sentences belongs in her story? Which sentences do not belong? Cut out the sentences and rearrange them to tell the story. Do not use any sentences that are not about the zoo.

We saw the lions and giraffes.

My mom has a red car.

I couldn't believe how long their necks are!

My favorite ice cream flavor is bubblegum.

We saw the lions being fed meat.

The giraffes were eating leaves from a tree.

I went to the zoo with my mom and brother.
